

Phillip Morris is a Modeling and Data Integrity Engineer at Southwest Power Pool in Little Rock, AR. As a native of Little Rock, he attended Little Rock Central High School. He graduated from Jackson State University and received his B.S. in Computer Engineering. Phillip is a veteran of the US Army, where he served 8 years. In his free time, he enjoys being car hobbyist and automotive fabrication. He is also a member of BL@ST and VETS at SPP.